Latest Arrivals at the Farm

We have seven new goat kids including two sets of triplets. Nanny goats have difficulty nursing more than two babies so the extra ones are being bottle fed. Luckily there is no shortage of volunteers offering to help with this! The kids enjoy climbing over and nibbling the Christmas trees donated to the farm at the end of the festive season. Our Large Black sow is doing a brilliant job looking after her 11 piglets. Mother and piglets are all doing well.
